Data Quality Information

Logical Consistency Report

An explanation of how "clean" the geographical data set is and the tests used. :

No duplicated points

Completeness Report:

Information about omissions, selection criteria, generalization, definitions used, and other rules used to derive the data set.

With the exception of Barrytown, all post offices are spatially correct and attributes are up-to-date.

Process Description:

Detailed description of how the data set was obtained/created and modified.

Data was obtained from the USPS website and from Emergency Response's addressing database. Data was then verified through Parcel Explorer and in some cases, by directly calling the post office locations. Points were then drawn in by hand to ensure accuracy.
