

Subject: Datasets formerly “Locked” on old GIS Clearinghouse Site

Date: March 27, 2023

Author: NYSITS – GIS Program Office

The new GIS Clearinghouse site does not have password protected (locked) data. Some of the formerly locked datasets are now available through the Clearinghouse. They are not listed here. Others are not available on this site but are still available to Data Sharing Cooperative members. The following list is a reference for those datasets.
